

ARTstor

ARTstor is a database that offers access to more than 300,000 images from ten different digital collections—with more collections being added over time. According to the publisher, “the database documents artistic traditions across many times and cultures and embraces architecture, painting, sculpture, photography, decorative arts, and design as well as many other forms of visual culture.”

The Washington University Libraries currently subscribe to ARTstor, which is used frequently by faculty and students in Art, Architecture, and Arts and Sciences. A gift would allow the University to continue providing this crucial tool for teaching and research in the arts.

Database

Cost: $100,000*

*Cost reflects a five year subscription, requested by the Libraries in order to ensure continuous access to the database. A minimum of $20,000 will fund the database for a year. Please contact B.J. Johnston, Associate Dean of Collections and Departmental Libraries (bj.johnston@wustl.edu or 314-935-5468) for details.