

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

LETTER FROM WAYMAN CROW TO WILLIAM
GREENLEAF ELIOT SPEAKING OF THE
INCORPORATION OF WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY,
THEN NAMED AS "ELIOT SEMINARY"

INTRODUCTION:

This collection is primarily comprised of a letter written from Wayman Crow to William Greenleaf Eliot dated 2 February 1853 which clearly indicates that the name "Eliot Seminary" be used for the first time when referencing the university.

COLLECTION CONTENTS:

BOX NO.: FOLDER DESCRIPTION:

01	Charter and Constitution, 1854
	Letter from Crow to Eliot, 1853 (Original Manuscript)
	Letter from Crow to Eliot, 1853 (Transcript and Negative)