Creator: Maritz and Young.

Title: Maritz and Young Collection.

Dates: 1912 – 1977.

Quantity: ca. 81.5 linear feet (includes 166 tubes of rolled architectural drawings)

Language: English.

Historical Note

Raymond E. Maritz (b. St. Louis, 1893; d. St. Louis, 1973) and Ridgely Young (n.d.) were responsible for designing a plethora of affluent residences and commercial edifices primarily in St. Louis County, Clayton, Ladue, and University City, Missouri.

Maritz studied architecture both at Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri and the Ecole de Beaux Arts in Paris, France.

Scope and Content Notes

This collection includes architectural drawings for residential and commercial buildings designed by Maritz and Young. The original order of the architectural drawings has been preserved in Series 01 through Series 04 and addresses are given when known. Series 05 is a card index that chronicle's the firm's projects. Series 06 was added to the collection at a later date and consists of supporting material including photographs of their projects and a list of their library.

This collection is divided into five series as follows:

Series 01: Blue Tubes = Residential Projects (arranged by original order)

Series 02: Green Tubes = Commercial Projects (arranged by original order)

Series 03: Yellow Tubes = Commercial Projects (arranged by original order)

Series 04: Miscellaneous Architectural drawings (arranged by original order)

Series 05: Card Index (arranged alphabetically by last name of resident or commercial project name)

Series 06: Supporting Material (arranged by material type)

Administrative Information

Source of Collection

Material in Series 01 through 05 was donated to the University Archives by Raymond Maritz, Jr. (Raymond Maritz's son) in April 2004. Raymond Maritz, Jr. gave the material in Series 06 to the College of Architecture in the School of Architecture, and then the School gave them to University Archives in June 2006.

Accruals

Accruals were added to the end of the collection.

Processing Information

Compiled by Crystal Alberts and Jay Kempen in July 2004. Updated by Sarah Pabarcus in January and July 2006; by Daniel Caldera in October 2008.
