Historical Note

Parking and Transportation Services maintains and regulates parking on the Danforth Campus and addresses the transportation needs of the campus community both within and outside the campus. It publishes shuttle schedules and maps and participates in the U-Pass program, providing Metro passes to students, faculty, and staff so that they may utilize the public transit system of the St. Louis metropolitan region.

Scope and Content Notes

The publications in the Parking and Transportation Services Collection regard parking and commuter options at Washington University, including vehicle parking, carpool programs, campus shuttles, and public transportation.
