Historical Note

A club known as The Round Table was established in 1882 where members could establish relations to be united on matters pertaining to the prosperity of the City of St. Louis. This civic organization was not directly connected with Washington University, however civic and business leaders in St. Louis, such as Edward Mallinckrodt, were both University supporters and club members.

Scope and Content Notes

Includes materials on the Founders Day Event, member booklets, programs 1921-1938, and binders with information from 1882-1925.

Arrangement

This collection is arranged by topic.
