Historical Note

The most current history of the entire University is Beginning a great work : Washington University in St. Louis, 1853-2003 by Candace O'Connor, (St. Louis: c2003) available through the Washington University Libraries. Other relevant histories of the University and various schools and departments can be located by searching the library catalog for the LC subject heading: Washington University (Saint Louis, Mo.) – History.

Scope and Content Notes

The collection includes information on the history of schools, departments, and colleges that are associated with Washington University. Due to the de-centralized nature of the University, it does not include all histories that may exist.

Files vary from complete published books to research notes on specific aspects of a department or school's history.

Files are arranged in alphabetical order by name, irrespective of the larger college or organization they may belong to.
