

Urban League of St. Louis
Series 10: Program “Operation Equality”

“Operation Equality” was a national program that the National Urban League administered through several Local Affiliate Agencies, including the Urban League of St. Louis. The Ford Foundation provided funds for organizations to improve and increase the quantity and quality of housing available for certain groups of people. Within St. Louis this program was for minority families. Carrie E. Bash was the Research Director for the Urban League of St. Louis. Most of the material is from 1967 and 1968.

Organization and arrangement: No apparent order.

Restrictions on access: none

Box 01

Carrie E. Bash: “Operation Equality” (folder 1 of 3)

Carrie E. Bash: “Operation Equality” (folder 2 of 3)

Carrie E. Bash: “Operation Equality” (folder 3 of 3)