

A.J. Wilson Papers, 1970-1976

Biographical Note

A.J. Wilson was formerly Executive Director of the St. Louis County Municipal League (1970-1971). In April of 1971 he became Executive Secretary to then-Mayor Alfonso J. Cervantes and continued to serve in that capacity under John H. Poelker (1973-1976). Mayor Poelker delegated to Wilson the responsibility of overseeing the Federal funds which were directed to solving large metropolitan areas. In 1976 Wilson left St. Louis to take a position in Portland, Maine.

Volume: 15 boxes (15 cubic feet)

Organization/Scope and Content

One series, arranged chronologically by subject. The collection is particularly strong in the areas of public housing (especially the administration of the Pruitt-Igoe Housing Project) and mass transit (especially the administration of the Bi-State Development Agency).
