Historical Note

The objectives of the Washington University Men's Faculty Club (also known as the Washington University Club) located at 29th and Locust Streets, were to provide the male faculty members, students, and graduates from all departments a place to socialize with each other and confer on University issues. It also provided an economical place for members from out of town to stay and eat.

Scope and Content Notes

This collection contains a list of the executive committee members, from 1911-1962, as well as the meeting minutes, club members, and notices, dating from 1936-1962. It also contains three copies of the Constitution and Bylaws of the club and the original constitution and meeting minutes from the early years of the club. The constitution lists the managing members of the club from 1903-1904, suggesting that these were the founding years of the club.
