My dear Sir,

I must renew my thanks to you for the kind interest you have taken in a subject which has giv en me so much solicitude, as manifested by your recent letter. The present posture of affairs is perhaps best, and I can only hope for the best, though it seems to me like hoping where there is hardly any hope.

The death of article from the Blind Institute has just come in a broken condition. I have not time to let you know the contents yet, but I will use some early occasion to have them exhibited to the member of the legislature and trust that an appropriation of about $15,000 for a building can be had.

The present State assembly is before my former me. I am not aware in talent twofold ability. Much less I will be neglected at all and I this is strikingly true of the House of immediate representation are not attending.
I fear, to our local interests as they require. I have not heard of the bill you allude to, but will be glad to facilitate its passage if it can be worked out forth. I find the hands of the constitution, your comments to ladles are must sought for by the men of Jefferson. I, by her hand adjure persons on 18th inst. to help to be home at 26th inst.
Please present me to Mr. Eliot
Mr. Rhode, & your children, and become one must.

Yr. S:tr.

Mr. Lamport

O: Eliot

P.S. If you see notice of a Charter to incorporate the "Eliot Seminary" next Condemn me for using the title - It is rather a punishable crime to get acts at the present time & I want to do as our Society may desire to have the privilege of establishing such an institution at some day. The committee partially organized a school in Concord.

N.B. I have just saw Mr. Newland of Raleigh, who informs me that Dr. was introduced to him in reference to publishing some, I say to have the attention from Blair but not having at the same time a report adverse to the law of war, expecting - If I can get a copy I will try to show it in Senate.
